

Protect Your Premises

Connaught's Clear View Software

Security and surveillance is a priority for every business, but finding the right solution can be confusing. You do not want something that's too big and complex to manage. However, you still need a solution that's smart enough to do the job.

Everything you need from one supplier

Our solutions are designed for businesses just like yours. You can solve problems such as protecting staff, premises and assets, while still focusing on your core business. They're easy to install, use and maintain, and as your needs grow, you can grow your security system too. It's a safe investment that provides everything you need to support your operations – all from one supplier.

A complete system, for total control

If you're looking for a complete solution that can cover all your surveillance needs, look no further than Connaught's Clear View video management software. It helps you handle incidents effectively and export high-definition evidence, quickly.

You can also add extra features, so you can communicate with visitors, secure entrances and exits, handle goods deliveries and use audio for deterrence. You can even use analytics on your camera to further enhance system performance.

The range also includes 4K ultra HD cameras, thermal cameras and products for harsh and hazardous environments.

Everything you need

'Ready to go' recorders

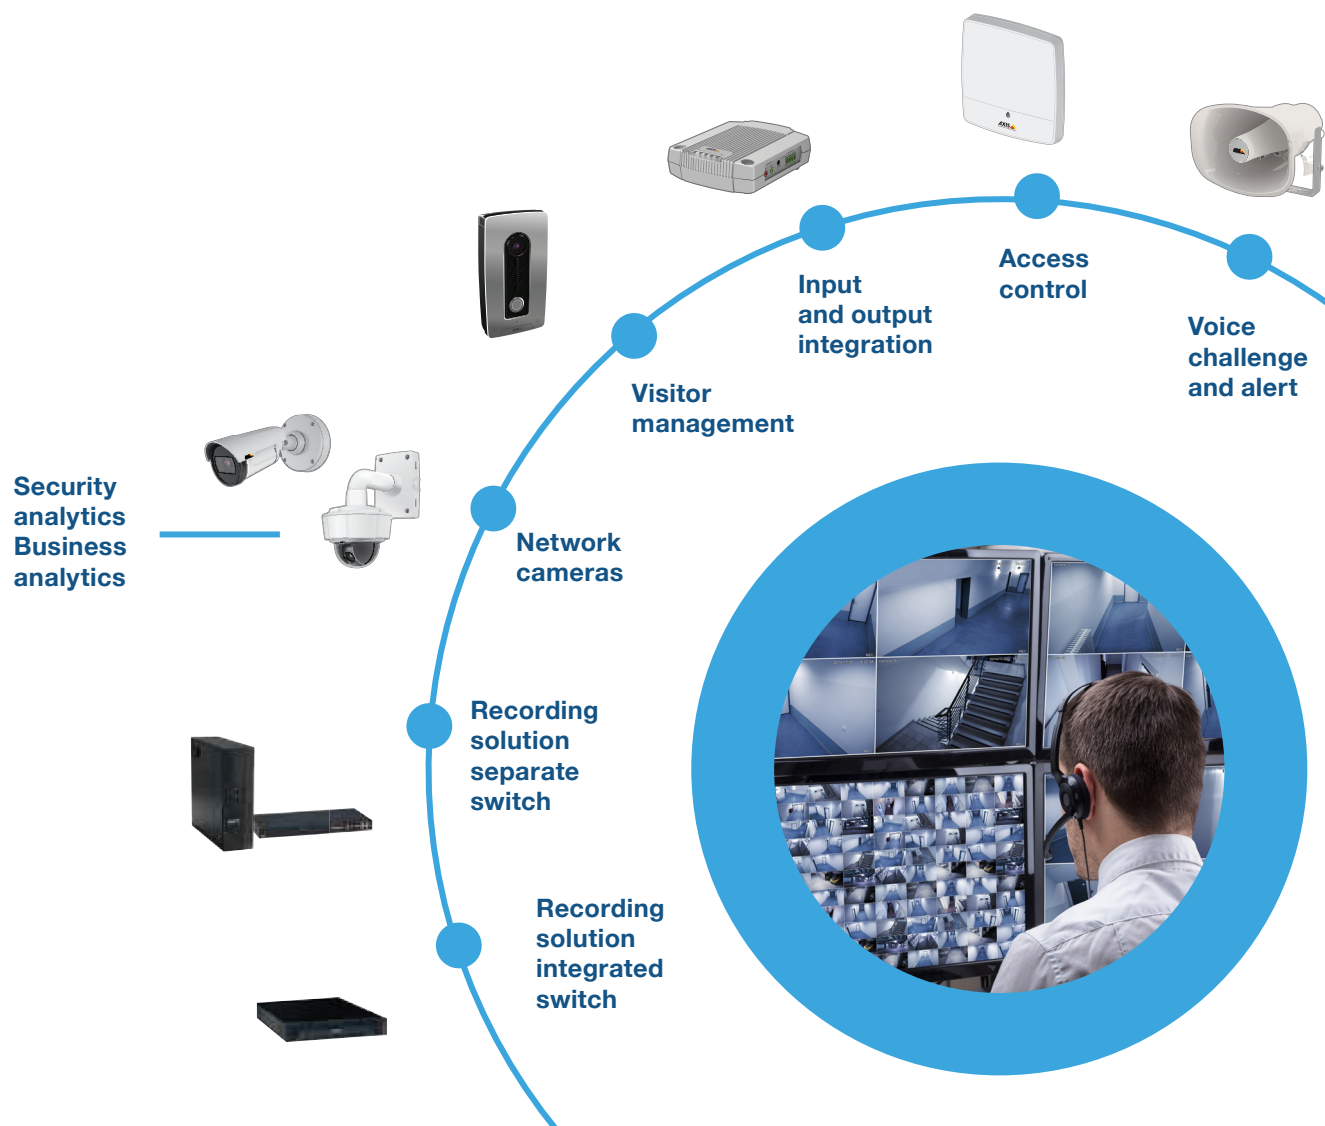

Our high-performance network video recorders enable high-definition surveillance up to 4K. Better still, they're ready to use straight out of the box.

By using these recorders alongside monitors, cameras and other devices, you'll get the perfect solution, so there's no need to be concerned about incompatible technologies.

Stay safe and secure

With Connaught, you won't just get the right system to suit all your needs; you'll also get value for money and first-class support. Choose an end-to-end solution that's ready to record straight out of the box. Or build your own system, using our software with standard PCs and servers. The choice is yours.

Whatever Connaught system you choose, you can rely on the best performance, all day, every day. As the needs of your premises grow or change, you can extend it quickly and easily. You can be rest assured your business will be well protected.

A complete system for total control
